Terms and Conditions

- 1) The descriptions and information set out on the reverse side hereof have been completed by David Bourland Gallery (the Gallery) based upon research and information available to the Gallery at this time. The identity of the artist, the period, the provenance, condition, and restoration comments are all supplied herein as the good faith opinion of the Gallery.
- 2) The work of art is sold and delivered in an "as is" condition. The customer has examined the work and is satisfied with its condition as of the date hereof.
- 3) The comments, descriptions and references contained on the reverse side are offered for their historical and cultural interest and do not form a material part of the sale. The information contained herein is based upon good-faith opinions, and any inaccuracy thereof shall not be grounds for rescissions, reformation or any other relief.
- 4) In many cases, the identity of the artist is a matter of scholarly opinion, and other methods of identification (i.e., scientific processing, pigmentation, analysis, x-ray, etc.) have not been utilized. In the event the work is proven by the customer to be a counterfeit, Customer shall be entitled to a full refund of the original purchase price paid to the Gallery. The right of rescission shall be the sole and exclusive right of the Customer in connection with any claim under this sales transaction.
- 5) The sale is made in the City of Springfield, County of Sangamon, and State of Illinois. Any dispute regarding this transaction shall be resolved in the City of Springfield, County of Sangamon, and State of Illinois. Any lawsuit arising out of or filed in connection with this sales transaction shall be brought in the City of Springfield, County of Sangamon and State of Illinois, and shall be governed by the internal laws of the State of Illinois.
